Perry Farm Village

A SENIOR LIVING COMMUNITY

A Mission of Presbyterian Villages of Michigan

Hints of coolness in the air, roads clearing out, locals drifting back downtown – fall is on its way in Northern Michigan. I love ‘sweater weather’ – the crisp breezes, the clean fresh feel to the air, the damp mulch smell of fallen leaves... definitely one of my favorite times of year. But it’s also time to start thinking about winter preparations and project to occupy us during the long months of winter.

At Perry Farm Village we will be doing some “Visioning” work ... What do we want to look like in 5 years, in 10? What things do we need to be doing and looking at to make sure that we are serving the needs of residents now, as well as making sure that we can serve changing needs in the future? Even ‘staying the same’ requires work – work to maintain and update, work to keep up with technology, work to make sure that we understand the next generation of potential residents. So look for news and updates on that front in the coming weeks! It is an exciting venture and I look forward to what we envision.

The final countdown is beginning for our ‘un-homed’ Hillside residents – we are looking to start moving back into our new building in the first weeks of October. We had a very lovely Open House & Dedication – and a big thank you to Martha and her team of volunteers and the team from PVM who traveled up from Southfield to make it all happen! It was wonderful to see so many of our Hillside folks (and a few Perry, too!) come out to see the space and celebrate the new building. It has been a long and difficult road – so let’s get ready to celebrate and enjoy the lovely new space. We will also be doing some additional freshening up work at Hillside West – keep the whole campus updated and looking good!

As always, my door is open – come find me to discuss, ask questions, give me your feedback.

The War Chief's Son Book Discussion

Please join us for Robert Brown to speak about his novel "The War Chief's Son" on Wednesday, September 7th at 2pm in the Dining Room.

Most of the story takes place in Harbor Springs and in Ann Arbor.

A "half-breed" boy from the north woods lives in poverty and fear until, at a desperate moment, the spirit of the long-dead, Great War Chief Pontiac, appears before him. Pontiac guides him on an incredible journey which takes him all the way to big-time college football. A university of Michigan Football Story.

Perry Farm Village Book Club

Our own Perry Farm Book Club is rounding out the summer reading program with a selection of books about the celebrated aviation pioneer, Beryl Markham, the first woman to fly solo across the Atlantic from east to west in 1936. She was one of the inspirations for the movie "Out of Africa" with Meryl Streep and Robert Redford. Please join our book club members on September 3rd at 6:45pm in the Card Room to view the film and have a brief discussion about this amazing woman.

Happy Reading,

Marni
